

Announcing:

The World Book Encyclopedia Online

The Silas Bronson Library is pleased to announce to the Waterbury community the acquisition of the World Book Encyclopedia Online. The encyclopedia can be accessed in and outside the library at the home page <http://bronsonlibrary.org> as well as the children's page. The usage from outside the library requires a library card.

This great online reference resource offers a great variety of features:

- Signed articles by experts in the field.
- More than 20,000 photos, illustrations, and maps.
- Hundreds of videos, a dictionary, an atlas, a timeline with citation builders, learning activities, quizzes, and printable worksheets.
- A biography center.
- A how-to- do research tutorial, homework help.
- Current news, among others.

We hope that students, educators, and the community in general will take advantage of this great resource. Librarians are available to visit the local schools for basic training. To arrange a date and time, call children's services at 203-574-8212 at least three weeks in advance. Classes can be accommodated Monday, Wednesday, and Friday after 10:00 am for a period of 45 minutes to one hour.

We thank you for your support in promoting the usage of this great reference resource.
