and giveaways

"ANIMAN"

With Larry Hunt

Thursday, March 5, 2015

4 p.m., Children's Room

"ANIMAN" plays with the similarities between animals and humans, while subtly underscoring respect for Earth's creatures. Integrating movement and over 20 original masks, you are bound to "see yourself" (or your neighbor) in one of several situations. From Bermuda to Hong Kong, Australia to Poughkeepsie, "ANIMAN" has gotten rave reviews as part magic, part illusion, always funny and sometimes dramatic.

"Folktales From Around the World"

With Tom Lee

Friday, April 10, 2015

3:30 p.m., Children's Room

Folktales were created long before reading and writing were commonplace, folktales were passed from teller to listener for centuries. Across a world of cultures listeners discover common themes such as heroic guests, strange enchantments and magical transformations.

"President Abraham Lincoln"

With Lewis Dube

Thursday, February 12, 2015

6 p.m., Children's Room

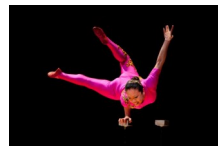

Mr. Dube has studied at the Yale School of Drama and has been presenting reenactments of President Lincoln for about thirteen years at schools, museums and libraries, including the presidential libraries of Dwight D. Eisenhower, Lyndon Johnson and George Bush.

"Li Liu The Acrobatic Hero"

Saturday, March 21, 2015

3 p.m. Children's Room

Li began performing in schools in 2005, at first collaborating with other circus artists, and eventually developing her own solo show. The performance includes hand balancing, plate spinning, trick cycling, foot juggling, ribbon dancing and Chinese water bowl manipulation. Li also touches on various aspects of Chinese language, geography and culture while sharing her work and travel experiences with the children and parents.

"Song, Dance, and the Possibilities"

With Brian Gillie

Saturday, May 16, 2015

1 p.m., Children's Room

Yes it takes practice to be creative and courage to be funky, but student ideas can generate fabulous results! Children end up on the creative side of the equation as they join Brian's ultimate, "anyone-can-write-a-song-and-anyone-can-invent-a-dance" experience. Learn the predictable ingredients that make a song or dance a "craze" but then... we've got permission to break the rules to create something extraordinary: Change the rhythm, lyrics, melody or style of a radio favorite; sing a ragtime classic in a doo-wop style; add rap rhythms to a jazz tune; or try "Hound Dog" as a waltz.
